To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore

Sir

Adverting to Government Proceedings No. 1596-7 and 2395-6 dated respectively 29th July and 17th August 1895, I am directed to state that the Registrar and the Deputy and Assistant Registrars of this Court now draw the minimum salaries of their appointments plus the increments which they have earned under the Proceedings quoted above, as noted in the margin; but, in consideration of the responsible nature of their duties, the Chief Judge submits their case for the favorable consideration of Government and recommends that Government may be pleased to grant them their maximum salaries with effect from 1st July last, on which date they have completed one years' approved service in their present appointments.

2. The Deputy and Assistant Registrars have already put in 27 and 20 years' service respectively and the grant of the maximum pay in their case would benefit them at the time of their retirement. In the case of the Registrar, considering the pay drawn by

by his predecessors, the Chief Judge thinks that even the present maximum pay is inadequate for the very important and responsible duties of the office and therefore strongly urges the necessity for his being allowed to draw the maximum pay at once

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,
Elizabeth Mudd
